

BP10 ADVISOR TRAINING

Building perennial businesses with high economic impact

General Description

This two-day program designed for coaches, consultants and practitioners who want to integrate Builder Profile BP10's insights into their practice. Participants will learn to interpret and apply BP10 results, including detailed insights into capabilities and roles, in order to help clients build and scale effectively.

Who should attend?

This training is ideal for professionals looking to expand their service offerings by leveraging BP10 methodologies, such as:

- Coaches and consultants seeking data-driven business-building frameworks
- CliftonStrengths practitioners wanting a business-focused coaching approach from Gallup
- Small business advisors seeking proven methods for sustainable growth
- Incubator/accelerator professionals refining entrepreneurial support with research-backed tools
- Organizations pursuing economic momentum through data-driven, measurable outcomes
- Anyone seeking deeper support with tangible ROI & practical applications

What you can expect?

The learning objectives for this program are to:

1. Discover BP10 reports and how to interpret them.
2. Understand the 10 capabilities and the 3 roles thoroughly
3. Apply practical methods to help build and create the desired impact
4. Integrate the worksheets, templates, and materials to transform your client outcomes
